

The Agenda is complete! Check out our outstanding list of speakers for next Wednesday's meeting at the Rutgers's University EcoComplex in Bordentown, NJ.

There is still time to register!

---

Perspectives on Regulatory Criteria and Screening Levels
Based on Fish and Wildlife Tissue Residues

Wednesday, October 8, 2008

Rutgers University EcoComplex \(Bordentown, New Jersey\)

- 8:15 Registration, Continental Breakfast, Poster Setup
- Welcome & Introduction (Steve Brown & Bob Hoke)
- 9:00 Linking Fish and Wildlife Tissue Residues to Contaminant Concentrations in Water and Sediment (David Glaser, QEA)
- 9:40 Observations on the History and Utility of Tissue-Based Wildlife Critical Body Residues (CBRs) for Regulatory Use (Tim Kubiak, USFW)
- 10:20 Break/Posters
- 10:40 Overview of NJDEP's Use of Fish and Wildlife Tissue Residues in Regulatory & Advisory Programs (Gary Buchanan and Nancy Hamill, NJDEP)
- 11:20 Learning from Implementation of Wildlife Criteria in the Great Lakes (Kari Evans and Fred Andes, Barnes & Thornburg LLP)
- 12:00 Lunch & Posters
- 12:45 Brominated Flame Retardants: The Human/Wildlife Connection (Rob Hale, VIMS)
- 1:25 Environmental Fate and Distribution of Cyclic Volatile Methylsiloxane Materials: Modeling and Monitoring Data (Charles Staples, Ellen Mihaich, Kathy Plotzke, Gary Koserski, Shihe Xu, Reinhard Gerhards, Joe Bazinet)
- 2:05 Break/Posters
- 2:20 Considerations for scientifically rigorous development and application of critical body residues in ecological risk assessment (Jennifer Sampson, Judi Durda, and Leslie Williams, Integral Consulting Inc.)
- 3:00 Panel Discussion and Q & A
All speakers invited to participate, audience comments welcome
- 4:00 Adjourn

Donald Nazario
HDC SETAC Vice President 2008-2009
(717) 917-6495 Cell Phone
nazario@hdcsetac.org